ABOUT CORY:

Hey it's me! Cory "Kxng" Charles, a Totally Awesome, Dynamic and Super Exciting motivational speaker, author, sales trainer and leadership coach. Or just a kid from Brooklyn as I like to say, who is dedicated to helping others including the underestimated and overlooked (and especially my Introverted friends) break through their limiting beliefs and achieve their full potential by discovering their own unique SuperPowers. A Human Potential Accelerator if you will. Turning Lambs into Lions!

My burning passion (Hotter than 1,000 Suns) for personal development and human betterment began early in my career, and I have spent nearly two decades sharing my message with audiences around the world in a way that is engaging, interactive, and truly unique. I am a content creator and writer of several topics on motivation, personal growth, and peak performance

I am known for my captivating and energetic presentations, and have delivered keynote speeches at conferences and corporate events that leave audiences feeling inspired and motivated to discover their own unique SuperPowers. I have also trained thousands of individuals on how to increase their productivity and performance by breaking through their limiting beliefs and achieving their goals.

CORE EXPERTISE:

- THE SUPERHERO MINDSET- Unlocking & Unleashing Your Inner SuperHero
- LEVEL UP- Limit Breaking to Achieve Your Full Potential
- THE LIMITLESS LION- Desire, Devotion, Discipline
- SALESOLOGY- The Sales Excellence Experience in a New World

CORY'S KEYNOTE:

As the last-born son of immigrants from Trinidad, I was taught from a very young age two very important lessons: first, the world doesn't owe you anything and second, you have to fight for your dreams. If you want something... go get it! My story of trial and triumph is proof that the American Dream of success is alive and well. A poor upbringing from one of the roughest areas of Brooklyn, NY didn't stop me from building a near 20-year career as a top sales professional and becoming a highly sought-after sales trainer and motivational speaker. Through this journey I teach teams how all our stories are interconnected and how even our smallest actions and decisions have major impacts on our customers, team members and families. With my passion for human betterment and my proven strategies for success, I am a truly exciting and unique force in the world of personal development. I am dedicated to helping others break through their limitations and achieve their dreams in sales, leadership and in life!

And of course, we always Spread Love...It's the Brooklyn Way ♡

TESTIMONIALS:

"Cory is one of the freshest and most authentic trainers and speakers I've worked with! His ability to attract a room, establish quick credibility and get people to learn when they think they are just having fun is incredible! He is engaging and genuine and will light up any room that you put him in! His content is innovative and out of the box and will level your team up!"

ABBIE MIRATA
DIRECTOR OF TRAINING & OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

"Cory is the BEST motivational speaker, trainer, and presenter. He is very engaging and adds personality and charm to keep the most distractive audience engaged and actively participating. His drive for excellence shines through with any project he delivers and not to mention with a touch of style and class!"

RACHAEL PIEPER
SALES & MARKETING DIRECTOR

"Cory Charles is one of the most dynamic, charismatic, and inspiring Trainers I know! He takes the time to listen and understand the needs of those whom he is working with and personalizes the message so they can understand it and execute it effectively."

MELANIE MICKIE, MBA
Vice President OF SALES

Cory is one of the most influential and charismatic professionals I have interacted with. Early on in my career (though it wasn't long ago), he had a significant impact on the way I perceived not only others but myself. If you are looking for someone to encourage you, mentor you, and push you to be your best Cory is your guy! Few people have the ability to impact and entertain a large crowd for a long period of time but he is fluid in every word he speaks while also delivery a meaningful message.
